

Company Values

CCA-POL-100

OUR VISION

“To consistently supply technically advanced lifting solutions, to a vast range of industries, while maintaining value, quality and service to our customers.”

OUR VALUES

Safety

- All employees have the right to return home safely to their families
- Putting Safety first in all activities
- Identifying and correcting hazards / potential hazards

Integrity

- We will be honest, fair, direct and dependable in everything we do.
- Always conduct business in line with our code of conduct and business ethics
- Create good working partnerships with all clients through a proactive working approach
- Transparent business dealings with all stakeholders
- Continue to build relationships based on honesty, openness, mutual trust and involvement.

Excellence

- We will deliver the highest professional service through our expertise, experience, training and attitude.
- We strive for continuous improvement by training our personnel, purchasing new and modern equipment, monitoring and reviewing our systems and staying up to date with changes to industry standards.
- Rewarding and challenging creativity
- We focus absolutely on identifying and delivering solutions while minimising risk and ensuring client's projects are completed on time and within budget.

Respect

- We seek to respect people, promote health and safety, protect the environment and encourage a sustainable approach.
- Create working opportunities for Indigenous Australians
- Care for the environment with a commitment to prevention of pollution and respect for cultural heritage.
- Involvement in community based initiatives

Reliability

- Simplistic/ consistent service delivery across all our operational sites
- We will use modern well maintained machinery.
- We will ensure a prompt reply and delivery of service when responding to clients' requests.

Rod White
Chief Executive Officer